The Nelson Mandela Tribute Concert

FEATURING TRIBUTES AND PERFORMANCES BY:

WILLIAM JEFFERSON CLINTON

MORGAN FREEMAN

SOWETO GOSPEL CHOIR

St. Paul The Apostle

February 13, 2014, 7:00 PM

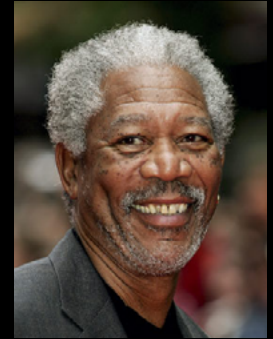

On February 13th, the Nelson Mandela Foundation in association with CultureHorde will hold a tribute concert in honor of the late, great Nelson Mandela - celebrating his life and legacy, and the 20th anniversary of democratic freedom in South Africa.

Hosted by Morgan Freeman and South African broadcaster Gareth Cliff, this incredible evening will take the audience through the life and times of Mr. Nelson Mandela.

Morgan Freeman will perform dramatic readings from the original transcripts of Mr. Mandela's letters, speeches, and personal writings. These readings will be accompanied by the world-famous Soweto Gospel Choir, who will fill the cathedral with songs that honor Mandela's life and vision. Finally, President Bill Clinton will give a special tribute speech to Nelson Mandela and the work of the Nelson Mandela Foundation, celebrating Mr. Mandela's life and accomplishments.

Following the performance, VIP ticket holders will join President Clinton, Morgan Freeman, and former NYC Mayor David Dinkins for an intimate cocktail reception.
